When I installed the game, I thought it was going to be where you could play as Daniel and Belial in their own chapters and with some good gameplay. I was wrong, what I got was: enter a room and a dozen or more enemies spawn at once, next room same thing, rinse and repeat for the whole game. I know that Painkiller is a linear game, but at least with Black Edition and Overdose, you could explore through the levels and fight enemies along the way, but this is just a simple box arena marathon.

Felt like there was no care to this game at all, and with only a total of eight levels with 6000 enemies, each level having about 400-1000, and that the levels themselves are multiplayer maps from previous Painkiller games. I can see why a lot of people don't like it. The only positive aspects I like is the music and that's about it. This is probably the only Painkiller game, where I used cheats just to speed it up. Overall the game is awful and stupid, and it was neither satisfying or fun to play. I highly do not recommend this game.
